Membership Application

Congregation Beth Am believes that the contribution we make to the synagogue is an investment in future generations. Our membership is active and engaged in worship services, social activities, and educational programs. We strive to make our membership attractive and affordable to everyone.

Once you join Beth Am you will find within its doors a spiritual home and an opportunity to add meaning to your life and to those of others. You will meet members who cherish this community and look to it as a source of friendship, Jewish learning of the highest quality and variety, and social action engagement
